

The Bush Administration has a $150 million PR campaign to market its war on Iraq just like a product.

(NY Times, Sept. 7 & 27, 2002)

DON'T BUY WAR!

Ten Reasons to Oppose the War Against Iraq:

1. Iraq does not pose an imminent threat to the U.S.
2. An attack on Iraq could put the U.S. at risk.
3. A preemptive attack is unjustified and illegal.
4. A preemptive attack would set a dangerous precedent.
5. When it comes to invading Iraq, the U.S. has few allies.
6. The war will be costly to U.S. taxpayers.
7. War in Iraq risks a humanitarian disaster.
8. There is no guarantee war will lead to a better regime in Iraq.
9. The U.S. record on installing democracies in other countries is dismal.

10. Peaceful alternatives are still possible!
