

A Day of Learning, Protest, Solidarity

No To War! Teach-In

Saturday, February 15, 10-4:30

UMKC-Katz Pharmacy Building, Room 215-5005 Rockhill

In Solidarity With Antiwar Protests In New York City And Around the World

You've heard the case for war on Iraq from Bush and Blair, Fox and CNN. Now is the chance to hear the other side—why we think this threatened war is wrong for America, wrong for the world. We're presenting three panels with plenty of time allotted for discussion from the audience. Come to one or come to all.

10:00-12:00—Panel: War and the Campus Community

12:00-1:00—Lunch

1:00-2:45—Panel: Labor and the War

2:45-3:00—Break

3:00-4:30—Panel: The Moral Questions Posed by War

Literature and Opportunities to Volunteer For Peace Activities Will Be Available

Open to the Public—Free Admission

Sponsored by Kansas City Labor Against the War
